

Darlington Snacks Nut-Free Statement

Darlington Snacks manufacturing bakery is a nut-free facility.

For many customers, allergens are a serious concern. In response to that concern, Darlington transitioned to a completely nut-free facility in August 2013. This eliminated any concerns customers and consumers may have had with potential nut allergen contamination.

Darlington is home of the brands Darlington, Appleways, and Crave-N-Rave. All our products are 100% nut-free. This allows schools, daycares, and many other foodservice locations to provide a risk free, healthy and tasty snack.
